

Asthma Canada

The Asthma Canada seeks to empower every child and adult in Canada with asthma to live an active and symptom-free life. Their mission is to be the balanced voice for asthma in Canada, advancing optimal self-management, prevention, research, and health care.

During 2023:

GSK provided:

- GSK provided core funding of $70,000 to support Asthma Canada community work through ACMA and initiatives in Severe Asthma.
- GSK provided project funding of $15,000 for partnership on Severe Asthma Patient Help Seeking Campaign.
- GSK provided project funding of $25,000 to support their RSV Awareness Campaign.
- Our support represented 11% of their overall income.

Best Medicines Coalition (BMC)

The Best Medicines Coalition (BMC) is a national alliance of Canadian patient organizations and individual patient advocates who share a commitment to ensuring safe, timely and equitable access to evidence-based medicines for all Canadians. Representing millions of patients living with or affected by chronic disease or other illnesses, the organization is engaged in a range of related policy discussions, including pharmaceutical review, reimbursement, treatment, life cycle management and safety issues.

During 2023:

- GSK provided core funding of $45,000 to support advocacy and policy initiatives on Patient Access and Reimbursement pathways.
- Our support represented 13% of their overall income.

Canadian Cancer Society

The mission of the Canadian Cancer Society is to improve the lives of all those affected by cancer through world-class research, transformative advocacy, and compassionate support.

During 2023:

- GSK provided sponsorship of $27,500 for the Daffodil Ball event in support CCS focused Quebec Research, Support and Prevention Programs.
- Our support represented 2% of their overall income.

Canadian Cancer Survivor Network

Created by a group of Canadians concerned about Cancer and cancer survivorship issues. A network of patients, survivors, friends, families, community partners and sponsors will work together taking action to promote the very best standard of care, support, follow up and quality of life for patients and survivors.

During 2023:

- GSK provided core funding of $20,000 to support CCSN prioritized legislative work to ensure that the cancer patient, caregiver, and survivor voice is heard nationally and provincially/territorially.
- Our support represented 2% of their overall income.

Canadian Organization for Rare Disorders (CORD)

Canadian Organization for Rare Disorders (CORD) is Canada's national network for organizations representing all those with rare disorders. CORD provides a strong common voice to advocate for health policy and a healthcare system that works for those with rare disorders. CORD works with governments, researchers, clinicians, and industry to promote research, diagnosis, treatment and services for all rare disorders in Canada.

During 2023:

- GSK provided a Conference sponsorship of $5,000 for CORD Rare Disease Day Conference March 28-29.
- GSK provided a Conference sponsorship of $10,000 for CORD Fall Conference Nov 29-30.
- Our support represented 3% of their overall income.

Canadian PBC Society

Canadian PBC Society's mission is to inform and educate those with PBC and their communities. to improve early diagnosis; to provide compassionate support to those suffering from PBC; and to raise funds for research to help find a cure and effective treatment.

During 2023:

- GSK provided a Bronze sponsorship of $10,000 for the National PBC Patient Conference and Physician Symposium.
- Our support represented 10% of their overall income.

Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease (COPD) Canada

COPD Canada is a non-profit educational society and patient advocacy group focused on providing support for people living with Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease (COPD). Their goal is to increase national public awareness of COPD and to upgrade the information, services and support currently available to patients and their families. The group's long-range objectives include the prevention of COPD as well as enhancing the treatment of COPD through education, patient care and advocacy.

During 2023

- GSK provided core funding of $25,000 for COPD Canada initiatives for 2023.
- GSK provided project funding of $12,000 to support the development of their RSV portal.
- Our support represented 9% of their overall income.

CONECTED

Their mission is to ensure the right environment exists in Canada for cancer patients to have access to cancer therapies. We are patient groups working together to promote greater education and understanding of therapies to ensure that Canadians have equal, timely access to these therapies, companion diagnostics and supportive care.

During 2023:

- GSK provided core funding of $10,000 to support awareness and communication plans.
- Our support represented 2% of their overall income.

Colorectal Cancer Canada

Colorectal Cancer Canada is the country's leading non-profit organization dedicated to increasing awareness and educating Canadians about colorectal cancer, supporting patients and their families, and advocating on their behalf.

During 2023:

- GSK provided the association core funding of $50,000 to support CCC's advocacy efforts on amplifying the Patient Voice in the policy arena in Canada.
- GSK provided a sponsorship of $15,000 for their 5th Patient Perspectives and values and Clinical Trials Conference.
- Our support represented 3% of their overall income.

Colorectal Cancer Resource and Action Network (CCRAN)

The Colorectal Cancer Resource & Action Network (CCRAN) is the most trusted colorectal cancer patient and caregiver network in Canada. We champion the health and the well-being of Canadians touched by colorectal cancer and others at risk of developing the disease by providing a "SEA" of services: Support, Education and Advocacy.

During 2023:

- GSK provided a sponsorship of $15,000 for CCRAN's annual conference on Genetic Testing.
- Our support represented 2% of their overall income.

Kidney Foundation of Canada

The Kidney Foundation of Canada faithfully supports and serves people with kidney disease and their families. The Foundation, through its volunteers and employees, is committed to understanding the needs of our community and to providing services and programs, which are meaningful and effective for patients to improve their quality of life – today and into the future.

During 2023:

- GSK provided core funding of $15,000 to support KFC mission through education and support with initiatives like patient webinars and patient forum.

- GSK provided sponsorship of $5,000 to support the BC and Yukon Kidney Gala to raise funds and support community and raise disease awareness.
- GSK provided sponsorship of $5,000 to support the Ontario Kidney Gala to raise funds and support community and raise disease awareness.
- Our support represented 1% of their overall income.

Leukemia and Lymphoma Society of Canada

LLSC is the largest registered charitable health agency dedicated to supporting the blood cancer community in Canada. The focus has grown and now includes Funding research, Rethinking how a person navigates their blood cancer experience, Providing targeted blood cancer information, Offering tools for psychological and emotional support, Empowering Canadians to take charge of their blood cancer experience through support and advocacy.

During 2023:

- GSK provided a sponsorship of $10,000 to support LLSC's annual conference, held between November 6-9, 2023.
- Our support represented 1% of their overall income.

Lupus Canada

Lupus Canada is a non-profit organization dedicated to the mission and vision of improving the lives of Canadians living with lupus through research, advocacy, public awareness and education. Lupus Canada is a non-profit organization dedicated to the mission and vision of improving the lives of Canadians living with lupus through research, advocacy, public awareness and education

During 2023:

- GSK provided core funding of $50,000 to support advocacy, awareness and education initiatives.
- Our support represented 12% of their overall income.

Lupus Ontario

Lupus Ontario's mission is to provide vital support, education, awareness, advocacy and research through the fundraising efforts of our staff and volunteer community to help those with lupus live longer, healthier and better lives. Lupus Ontario is the largest provincial organization focused on improving the lives of lupus patients and their families.

During 2023:

- GSK provided a project funding of $10,000 to support The Lupus Ontario Anne Matheson Biobank which will help establish a lupus biometric sample database that will form the basis for many research projects.
- Our support represented 3% of their overall income.

Myeloma Canada

Myeloma Canada is a non-profit, charitable organization created by, and for people impacted by multiple myeloma, a relatively unknown cancer of the plasma cells. As a patient-driven, patient-focused grassroots organization, Myeloma Canada drives collaborative efforts to unify the voice of the community to effectively shape the Canadian treatment landscape with a committed focus on the improvement of patient outcomes.

During 2023:

- GSK provided $50,000 for core funding to support mission and strategic plan.
- GSK provided a conference sponsorship of $20,000 for the E_HEALTH Matters Conference
- GSK provided a conference sponsorship of $20,000 for the Myeloma Canada Scientific Roundtable
- Our support represented 3% of their overall income.

Ovarian Cancer Canada

Ovarian Cancer Canada champions the health and wellbeing of women with ovarian cancer and others at risk of this disease while advancing research to save lives. As the only registered Canadian charity solely dedicated to overcoming ovarian cancer, the organization provides leadership in research, advocacy, and support, so that women live fuller, better, longer lives.

During 2023:

- GSK provided core funding of $150,000 to help support mission and implementation of strategic plan.
- GSK provided sponsorships of $10,000 for their Halifax and Charlottetown Lady Balls events.
- Our support represented 4% of their overall income.

People Before Patients

People Before Patients is an organization dedicated to humanizing health care through innovation in research, education and practice. People Before Patients was formerly known as the Canadian Caregiver Network. This change in the organization's brand identity reflects a growing mission to focus on the larger health care ecosystem and how it can put people first in health care practice. Despite the broader scope of the work, caregivers remain among key stakeholders. Focus will shift towards incubating best models of practice that put patients and family members at the centre of care with a view on optimizing practice and improving health outcomes.

During 2023:

- GSK and People Before Patients entered in a Service Agreement of $30,000 to assess Patient Centricity approaches in GSK and others pharmaceutical companies.
- Our support represented 6% of their overall income.

The Canadian Lung Association

The Canadian Lung Association is the leading organization in Canada working to promote lung health and prevent and manage lung disease. We do this by funding vital research, pushing for improved treatments, smarter policies, or supporting patients in managing their health.

During 2023:

- GSK provided project funding of $9,300 for their immunization campaign.
- Our support represented 1% of their overall income.

The Lung Health Foundation

The Lung Health Foundation is a leading patient-organization committed to supporting and empowering individuals living with lung disease across Canada. Through their range of community initiatives, grass-roots educational programs, research and advocacy, they elevate awareness and foster a compassionate environment for those affected by lung conditions, including their caregivers.

During 2023:

- GSK provided project funding of $22,000 to support their virtual COPD self-management and education service.
- GSK provided a sponsorship of $10,000 for their Breathe! Bash.
- GSK provided project funding of $40,000 for the development of their Asthma Best Practices Implementation toolkit.
- GSK provided project funding of $20,000 for their immunization campaign.
- GSK provided a sponsorship of $37,000 for their Better Breathing conference.
- Our support represented 2% of their overall income.

The Lung Association – British Columbia

The British Columbia Lung Association is a long-standing and solid patient organization in Canada. Their mission is to improve the lung health of British Columbians through strategic initiatives in research, education and advocacy.

During 2023:

- GSK provided project funding of $11,500 to support their educational event (webinar) and website update on RSV.
- Our support represented 2% of their overall income.

The Lung Association - Québec

The Quebec Lung Association is a registered Canadian charity that works on asthma, emphysema, COPD, tuberculosis, sleep apnea, lung diseases, tobacco, smoking-cessation, and air pollution.

During 2023:

- GSK provided core funding of $60,000 to support their efforts in education, respiratory health promotion, lung disease prevention and rehabilitation.

- GSK provided project funding of $20,000 for their World COPD Day Initiatives.
- GSK provided a sponsorship of $30,000 for their Congrès Québécois en Santé Respiratoire.
- GSK provided project funding of $25,000 for their Immunization Campaign.
- GSK provided project funding of $20,000 for their RSV scientific roundtable.
- GSK provided a sponsorship of $10,000 for their Bulles et Tapis Rouge event.
- Our support represented 4 % of their overall income.

The Lung Association – Nova Scotia

The Lung Association provides programs to support Nova Scotians in managing and preventing lung disease. From support groups and quit smoking challenges to radon detection and sleep apnea machine provision. Their programs are designed to support Nova Scotia lung health.

During 2023:

- GSK provided core funding of $40,000 to support their efforts in advocacy, patient services, education and research. GSK provided a sponsorship of $2,500 to support their PEI COPD Educational day event.
- Our support represented 3% of their overall income.

The Lung Association - Saskatchewan

Lung Saskatchewan is a Canadian registered health charity that has been at the forefront of improving lung health in overall quality of life through programs, education, research, training, treatment, & prevention of lung disease Saskatchewan.

During 2023:

- GSK provided project funding of $15,000 for development of webinar series for patients.
- GSK provided a sponsorship of $4,000 for the Inspired Breathing Conference.
- Our support represented 1% of their overall income.